

Human Resources Assistant- Makhzoumi Foundation

Job Title:

Human Resources Assistant- Internship

Duration: May- July 2019

Supervisor: Mohamad Mays

Role duties

- I updated HR databases, filing systems, and personnel documents for interns and employees. To illustrate, I managed to update the files of the employees based on a new organized system in addition to filing employees' missing files.
- I organized received CVs in their corresponding files while creating new files for different documents when necessary. Also, I collected, screened and filtered potential candidate CVs, and arranged interviews accordingly.
- I selected candidates for vacant positions based on the hiring need and I conducted vacancy announcements externally through personal means. I aided interviewees in filling their application and I gave feedback about some candidates.
- I kept track of job descriptions, organizational charts, and performance evaluations in alienation together.
- I wrote and distributed regret and recommendation letters for employees.
- I followed up daily with the head of HR as I assisted him in monitoring attendance, active and left employees, and recording lateness. In fact, I sent warning emails for some employees due to their lateness, and I conducted employees' concerns and requests to the manager.

Reflection

In this role, I gained valuable experience in updating HR databases, organizing files, and managing personnel documents. Screening candidates and conducting interviews honed my recruitment and evaluation skills. Working closely with the HR head improved my understanding of strategic HR management. I developed strong communication abilities while writing and distributing regret and recommendation letters for employees. Handling employee relations and concerns taught me empathy and conflict resolution. This experience enhanced my overall organizational skills and taught me the importance of effective HR practices in fostering a positive work environment. I am grateful for the opportunity and the growth it has brought to my professional journey.